Section A CRITERIA FOR SCHOLARSHIP*

The Sir George Elliot Charitable Trust awards three tertiary scholarships each year.

The criteria for successful applicants are:

1. To have faced and overcome serious adverse life circumstances. These may be of any sort, including (but not limited to) those to do with family, health, disability, finances or culture.
2. To exhibit leadership in school and local community and, from that, the promise of being a well-rounded individual and of making an outstanding future contribution to New Zealand and its communities.
3. To have shown academic excellence in secondary school and, from that, the promise of completing tertiary study with distinction.

* All Scholarships are subject to regulations approved by the Trust, which may be found at www.elliotttrust.org.nz
